Wallace And Folsom Lead In Straw Poll Conducted In Elba

A second straw vote was conducted in Elba during the past two weeks. Last week a poll was taken at the Rotary Club when a number of citizens other than Rotary members participated in the poll. In that poll Wallace received 15 votes and Folsom 13.

In the poll this week, taken in a popular cafe, guests were invited to vote in the straw poll. 20 people participated in that poll. Wallace received 12 votes, Folsom 4, Galtion 2, Boutwell 1, and deGraffenreid 1. Comor, Farish, Henderson and Jennings failed to receive a vote in that poll.

According to the Sylvaugh News a straw vote on the gubernatorial candidates was taken recently in Rockford. One voted for Wallace and one for Folsom. As Rockford goes, so goes Goodwater, says the Sylvaugh News.

In a statewide poll among Alabama newspaper editors, Folsom is the No. 1 man with Wallace second. But the poll seemed to indicate that there would be a run-off in which Folsom might find the plowing sticky.

In several areas it was claimed that it is Folsom all the way and with deGraffenreid as the other candidate gaining some headway.

Everywhere it is admitted that Folsom is the man to beat, though in most areas the governor's race still creates little interest among voters. A few editors think Folsom will be elected while others think the runner will be hard on him in the run-off.

Education is apparently the issue of most interest instead of the racial question.

CONGRESSMAN GEORGE ANDREWS, candidate for reelection, gets favorable action on his latest bill, O.C. 100, military forces will get no more than the U. S. House Concurrent Resolution. 426 would prohibit the appropriation of U. S. funds for the training of military personnel from any country other than the United States.

The Tigers had only mild success in tournaments this year placing third in the Enterprise Christmas tournament, reaching the second round in the SAC tournament and reaching the quarter-finals in the district tournament.

The Tigers were hindered in the district tournament by the loss of Harold Hudson with a knee injury in the last game of the regular season.

Coach George Grider's B team finished their season with a fine 16-3 season record, winning the last ten games.

Starting off for the B's were high scoring Fred Smith with a 13 point average per game. Dwight Holley, Claud Devane, Max Reeves, Sammy Edmondson, and Joe Hodge, back up by Terry Cantley, Bob Cooper and Ricky Barton.

The Junior team, coached by Ray Flowers, finished the season with an 8-8 record after a slow start.

Leading scorers were Harry Driggers with other players Bill Bruce, George Sanders, Joe Roberts, Buddy Bowers, Farrel Smith, Robert Ward, Sammy Cantley, and Jimmy Bryan.

Managing for the Tiger basketball team are Sammy Cantley and Jerry Egan.

Miss Suzanne Hayes And William G. Clark Marry In Impressive Church Ceremony Here

MRS. WILLIAM GORDON CLARK

Miss Suzanne Hayes and Mr. William Gordon Clark, both of Elba, were married Saturday afternoon, March 3, at four o'clock in the First Baptist Church in Elba.

Dr. Charles Graham, pastor, officiated at the impressive double-ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Hayes, Jr., of Elba. The groom is the son of the late Mr. Gordon Clark and Mrs. Clark.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of silk organza and a remembrance brooch. Her hair was styled with a Sabrina neckline outlined with Alencon motifs and seed pearls. The bride's bodice came to a point in front and had long tapering sleeves that fitted at the wrist and fastened with tiny covered buttons. Her wide sweeping skirt was decorated with modallons of Alencon lace and pointed in bustle back with butterfly bow falling in a sweeping chapel train. Her full circular veil of pure silk imported English illusion was attached to a cap made of hand-rolled silk or ganza roses and pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid with yellow thread, from which flowed white satin ribbon. Her bridal bouquet was increased in yellow net.

Miss Sandra Farris was her maid-of-honor. Other attendants were Miss P. O. I. Clark, sister of the groom, and Miss Cathy Roberts. They wore floor length dresses in daffodil yellow, made of peau de soie and fashioned with scooped neckline and cap sleeves. Their bodies were fitted with pleated midriff wrapped around bell skirts with floral overskirt panels that dropped to the hemline. The groom was served by Fred Tillman as best man. Ushers-groomsmen were Charlie Hayes, brother of the bride and Jerry Brown. Mike Corbitt and Roger Willis were candlelighters.

The church decorations included an arch flanked by large arrangements of white glads and mums against a background altar arrangement of white flowers and white candles burning in the altar candleabra. Preceding the ceremony a program of nuptial music was furnished by Miss Sue Morrow, organist and Mrs. Jeanice Paul Kirkland, soloist. For a benediction, Mrs. Kirkland sang "A Wedding Prayer."

A reception in Fellowship Hall of the church followed the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with white net over white satin and the net was held full around the table with yellow satin ribbon caught at intervals with miniature nosegays of white and yellow flowers. A three-tiered wedding cake was placed on one end of the table and a silver punch service at the other end. The table's central decoration was a bouquet of white flowers and candles coming from a silver base outlined in yellow net.

Mrs. Charles P. Hayes III, registered the guests. Mrs. Bryan Taylor cut the wedding cake and Miss Olive Carnley, Miss Frances Jo Windham, Miss Linda Crook and Mrs. Bill Brazelton served punch and other dainties.

S. S. Administration Assists Farmers In Filing On Earnings

It's that time of the year again. And the farmers around here, along with those all over the nation, are going through their books to let Uncle Sam know how they came out money wise in 1961.

Some farm owners who receive cash-rent or crop shares from tenant farmers can get social security credit for that income.

If the farm landlord (or his agent) under his agreement with his tenant, materially participates in the production or management of production of the farm crops raised on his land, this income may be reported for social security purposes.

Information regarding taxes due and tax return forms can be obtained at the Internal Revenue Office at Dothan, Alabama. If you have any questions about old-age, survivors, or disability insurance, the people in the social security office at Dothan will be glad to answer them.

FOR TOURIST NOW

Mobile's famed azaleas are popping out all over the city and should be at their peak by the weekend of March 10-11 if weather conditions remain favorable.

The vivacious blooming shrubs budded well and do not appear damaged by the severe January cold wave which killed many nursery plants in containers.

Thousands of tourists attracted by the two-month Azalea Trail Festival of events in Mobile have already visited the city and many more are expected.

The Azalea Trail is sponsored by the Mobile Junior Chamber of Commerce and was originated by Jaycees in 1929.

Sam Rowe, Mrs. J. M. Kimmy, Miss Gladys Clark, Mrs. Foy Spurlin, Mrs. Claude Dorsey, Mrs. R. I. Lawrence, Mrs. J. M. Kimmy were joint hostesses for the Azalea Garden Club meeting held Wednesday morning, March 7, at 9:30 in the lovely Wright home.

The spacious den, overlooking the beautiful garden of blooming Azaleas and Camellias made a fitting setting for this spring meeting. Bowls of Camellias from the home garden accentuated the colorful decor of the room.

On arrival the guests were served refreshing hot coffee with delicious cream - topped gingerbread.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Duke Tatum, the meeting was called to order and business conducted by the vice-president, Mrs. Claude Dorsey. Roll call brought responses from the members of their most useful garden tool. Minutes were read by the Secretary, Mrs. Boyd Murphree. Reports were made by officers and chairmen of the various standing committees.

Mrs. L. P. Mullins, chairman of a special committee for plantings on the fence surrounding the cemetery, reported that ninety running roses had been planted, and the price of a rose bush, $1.00, was a bargain.

The club voted to sponsor a drive to get every homeowner to plant a Dogwood tree at their home. Much progress on the work of planting the grounds around the pool was reported. A committee, composed of Mrs. F. H. Murphree and Mrs. J. M. Kimmy was appointed to meet with the City Council to discuss plans for improving the looks of the several approaches to the city. Letters of invitation for the opening of the Azalea-Dogwood Trail in Dothan and Flower Show in Enterprise were read.

Mrs. Elmer Taylor reported on the success of the "Penitents from Heaven" and the sale of plants of the "Penitents from Heaven".

Dr. J. M. Kimmy, one of Elba's ardent flower lovers and an expert on the culture of Camellias and Azaleas, was the guest speaker for the meeting.

Miss Gladys Clark introduced Dr. Kimmy who explained the best methods of planting, grafting, and fertilizing the plants and displayed a thrifty Camellia plant that he had grafted on the occasion of a visit to the club last year.

Members present for this interesting meeting were: Mrs. F. H. Murphree, Mrs. Elmer Taylor, Mrs. Boyd Murphree, Mrs. T. Rhodes, Mrs. L. P. Mullins, Miss Eunora Farris, Mrs. Drexel Cook, Miss Gladys Clark, Mrs. Foy Spurlin, Mrs. Claude Dorsey, Mrs. R. I. Lawrence, Mrs. J. M. Kimmy.

Mobile's Azalea Trail Is Beautiful Scene

Mobile's famed azaleas are popping out all over the city and should be at their peak by the weekend of March 10-11 if weather conditions remain favorable.

The vivacious blooming shrubs budded well and do not appear damaged by the severe January cold wave which killed many nursery plants in containers.

Thousands of tourists attracted by the two-month Azalea Trail Festival of events in Mobile have already visited the city and many more are expected.

The Azalea Trail is sponsored by the Mobile Junior Chamber of Commerce and was originated by Jaycees in 1929.

Sam Rowe, Mrs. J. M. Kimmy, Miss Gladys Clark, Mrs. Foy Spurlin, Mrs. Claude Dorsey, Mrs. R. I. Lawrence, Mrs. J. M. Kimmy were joint hostesses for the Azalea Garden Club meeting held Wednesday morning, March 7, at 9:30 in the lovely Wright home.

The spacious den, overlooking the beautiful garden of blooming Azaleas and Camellias made a fitting setting for this spring meeting. Bowls of Camellias from the home garden accentuated the colorful decor of the room.

On arrival the guests were served refreshing hot coffee with delicious cream - topped gingerbread.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Duke Tatum, the meeting was called to order and business conducted by the vice-president, Mrs. Claude Dorsey. Roll call brought responses from the members of their most useful garden tool. Minutes were read by the Secretary, Mrs. Boyd Murphree. Reports were made by officers and chairmen of the various standing committees.

Mrs. L. P. Mullins, chairman of a special committee for plantings on the fence surrounding the cemetery, reported that ninety running roses had been planted, and the price of a rose bush, $1.00, was a bargain.

Gov. Patterson Tells Needs Of Education To School Leaders

Thousands of Alabama school teachers were back in their classrooms this week after hearing Gov. John Patterson challenge them "to work constantly to become better teachers, confident in the knowledge that their efforts are important to their state and nation."

Addressing the Alabama Association's annual convention in Birmingham, the governor urged educators to take a more active part in seeking additional funds for education.

"You are not going to find very many legislators and public officials who will stand up and fight for more money for schools on the floor of the Legislature if you do not stand up and support those legislators," he said.

Gov. Patterson said, "I believe education in this state suffered because too many people, including office holders and some educators, wanted to sit it out on the sidelines and avoid 'political implications.'"

Urging education leaders not to be "over-zealous in purpose," Gov. Patterson said he believed Alabama public had been "anesthetized by constant year after year warning of school crisis after school crisis."

He asked that school officials give the people "the other side of the story" as well as stories of educational shortcomings.

Give the people the bright side too, a pat on the back occasionally, and I believe it will awaken their inherent sense of pride and make them want to help their schools more," the governor said.

On the bright side, Gov. Patterson pointed out that expenditures in the state's elementary and high schools in the 1960-61 school year totaled $176,000,000, or an average of more than $241 per student in average daily attendance. In addition, the state spent $34,298,900 in building new grade schools last year and "millions" more on trade schools, colleges and universities.

"Despite what you may have heard in the present political campaign, Alabama's current expenditure for public schools per pupil in average daily attendance is more than in Mississippi, than in Tennessee, and in South Carolina. Definitely, we are not rock-bottom, but admittedly, we have a long way to go," the governor said.

On the bright side, Gov. Patterson pointed out that expenditures in the state's elementary and high schools in the 1960-61 school year totaled $176,000,000, or an average of more than $241 per student in average daily attendance. In addition, the state spent $34,298,900 in building new grade schools last year and "millions" more on trade schools, colleges and universities.

"Despite what you may have heard in the present political campaign, Alabama's current expenditure for public schools per pupil in average daily attendance is more than in Mississippi, than in Tennessee, and in South Carolina. Definitely, we are not rock-bottom, but admittedly, we have a long way to go," the governor said.

Another Straw Ballot Taken By C. of C. Here Puts Wallace In Front

A surprise in results developed in a straw ballot taken at the regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night. Wallace led in the poll with 10 votes. Former governor "Big Jim" Folsom got 6 votes, and for the first time in a straw ballot in Elba, Ryan deGraffenried caught fire and received 9 ballots. deGraffenried had barely been recognized up until this time, though he has been reported as gaining support in other parts of the state.

But as in other recent polls, the straw ballot at the Chamber meeting favored Folsom and Wallace in the run-off.
